7.1.9 Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

Sharadchandra Pawar Institute of Management is affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University. The university introduce a special credit courses name as "INTRODUCTION TO CONSTITUTION" for all PG Students from academic year 2021-22. SPIOM also take the initiative to implement this course successfully.

The syllabus of the course Introduction to Constitution

Course Objectives: This course introduces students to the Constitution of India. The Constitution, being supreme law of the land, must be known to every citizen of India. It begins with the Preamble, which indicates the source and objects of it. We, the people of India, are the source of the Constitution and have resolved to constitute India into a sovereign, socialist, secular, democratic and republic. The Course has been designed for everyone to make acquaint themselves with their fundamental rights and of others. No right is absolute one; it is subject to others right, as well. Directive Principles of State Policy are nothing but rights, though not enforceable by any court. These Directive Principles are basically 'Fundamental Principles' in the governance of the country. Powers and freedoms come with responsibility, State's responsibility to implement Directive Principles and citizens must perform their duties towards others, society and nation.

Expected Course Outcomes: To introduce the philosophy of Constitution of India to students. To acquaint them with their freedoms and responsibilities
